- B. If applicable, describe the nature and extent of your practice of law (present and former), and provide the names of your partners, associates, office mates, and employers.

I practiced law as an insurance defense attorney at Wise, Wiezorek, Timmons & Wise in Los Angeles from 1981 to 1988. During that time I handled a wide variety of litigated cases including automobile accidents, intentional tort claims, product liability claims, legal and medical malpractice claims, aviation accidents, and maritime accidents. I also represented several insurance carriers in coverage matters and bad faith claims. Upon resigning in June of 1988, my partners included George Wise, Tony Wiezorek, Duane Timmons, Susan Wise, and Al Padley. My associates included Steve Smith who now practices as a staff attorney for Farmers Insurance Exchange.

In 1990 I returned to the active practice of law and opened Shean Law Offices in Bloomington. In the early 1990's I handled civil and criminal litigation, child custody and support claims, and represented non-profit organizations. Since the mid-1990's I have focused on civil tort and worker's compensation claims and representing non-profit corporations.

My former partners at Shean Law were Jackson County Superior Court Judge Bruce MacTavish and attorney Lisa Blackman (fka Lisa Mayfield) of Morgan County. I have no law partners at present. Attorney Brandon Hall currently serves as an associate at my firm.

5. Trial/Judicial Experience

A. Describe the extent of your jury trial experience, if any.

I have tried dozens of jury trials. My first jury trial was held in Los Angeles Superior Court in 1982. I tried approximately ten cases to jury during my time as an insurance defense attorney in California.

My first Indiana jury trial was held in 1992 in Jackson County Circuit Court and involved a breach of contract claim against a building contractor. Since then I have tried numerous state court cases to a jury including claims arising out of automobile accidents, premises liability, and defamation. In 1993 I served as co-counsel in a federal civil rights case. In 1998 I served as co-counsel in a premises liability case tried in federal court.

In 1993 I represented a criminal defendant charged with Intimidation as a Class C Felony.

My last jury trial was in April of 2012 in Monroe Circuit Court I. It involved a civil tort claim for personal injuries suffered by a motorcycle rider.

B. Describe the extent of your bench trial experience, if any.

I have tried hundreds of cases to the bench since 1990 including many cases to the single hearing members of the Indiana Worker's Compensation Board. In the early 1990's several of my cases tried to the bench involved debt collection for commercial creditors in small claims court.

From the mid-1990's forward my bench trials have largely involved breach of contract claims, underinsured motorist claims, insurance coverage disputes, personal injury claims, and an unsafe building claim brought by a governmental entity. Most of the cases were tried in Monroe County.

C. If applicable, describe the nature and extent of your judicial experience (including as a judge pro tempore). Include a description of your experience presiding over jury trials, if any.

I have served as a judge pro tempore in Monroe County Small Claims Court on several occasions and presided over several trials in that capacity.

In 1998 I was trained as a civil mediator and have presided over 48 mediations involving civil tort claims and worker's compensation claims.

6. Professional Experience

Include as writing samples, four selections (in total) from the written materials listed below in Subsections 6A – 6C.

- A. If applicable, list up to five trial or appellate briefs and/or judicial opinions you have written. Refer to them by caption, case number, and filing date.

Mafnas v. Owen County Office of Family & Children*, 699 N.E.2d 1210 (Ind. App. 1998), Brief of Appellants, filed January 22, 1998.

Bloomington Hospital v. Stofko*, 705 N.E.2d 515, reh. den. 709 N.E.2d 1078 (Ind. App. 1999), Brief of Appellee, filed November 13, 1998.

City of Bloomington v. Bloomington Investment Group*, Cause No: 53C05-9908-CP-01095, Defendant's Trial Brief, filed February 7, 2002.

Horn v. Hendrickson*, 824 N.E.2d 690 (Ind. App. 2005), Amicus Curiae Brief of Indiana Right to Life, Inc., filed May 10, 2004.

Elliott v. Kreisle, et. al.*, Cause No: 74C01-0804-CT-0223, Plaintiff's Opposition to Motion for Summary Judgment, filed April 3, 2009.

- B. If applicable, list up to five legislative drafts or court rules you have written or to which you contributed significantly. Refer to them by official citation, date, and subject matter.

In 2006 I worked with the Indiana Manufacturer's Association to propose the adoption of Indiana Code 22-3-1-4, which set legal fees under the Indiana Worker's Compensation Act, and to amend Indiana Code 22-3-2-2(a), requiring that the employee has the burden of proof on each element of the claim. These statutory amendments were added that same year.

In 2009 I lobbied and testified before the Indiana Legislature to urge the passage of SB 341 which amended the Indiana Child Wrongful Death Act, Indiana Code 34-23-2-1, to include a viable fetus as a "child" under the Act.

In 2013 I lobbied and testified before the Indiana Senate to amend Indiana Code 22-3-3-10 to update benefits for permanent partial impairment. I also testified before the Indiana Senate to amend Indiana Code 22-3-3-5 and 22-3-6-1 to limit the payment of medical expenses in worker's compensation claims to 200% of the Medicare reimbursement rate. The Legislature adopted those amendments in 2014.

- C. If applicable, list up to five of your contributions to legal journals or other legal publications. Provide titles, official citations, and a brief description of the subject matter.

Not applicable.

D. Identify the five most significant legal matters entrusted to you, whether as a judge or lawyer, and describe why you believe them to be so.

1. In re White Cloud Carter Boat Co., Inc., 813 F.2d 1513 (9th Cir., 1986). This maritime case involved a death and significant personal injuries arising out of a tragic boating accident. As a young associate attorney, I was entrusted with handling the case from start to finish, including the investigation, discovery, accident reconstruction, five-day bench trial, and the appeal. The court ruled completely in favor of my client. I was honored to be trusted with handling all aspects of the case over a period of nearly six years.

2. In Horn v. Hendrickson, 824 N.E.2d 690 (Ind. App. 2005), I prepared the Amicus Curiae Brief of Indiana Right to Life, Inc. In McVey v. Sargent, 855 N.E.2d 324 (Ind. App. 2006), I prepared the Amicus Curiae Brief of Indiana Right to Life, Inc. In 2009 I assisted in the passage of SB 341 which amended the Indiana Child Wrongful Death Act, Indiana Code 34-23-2-1, to include a viable fetus as a “child” under the Act. Through these efforts I was honored to represent the position of Indiana Right to Life that human life begins at conception and should be entitled to constitutional legal protection.

3. In Double v. Indiana Family & Social Services, Cause No.: 53C01-0111-CP-01837, I represented Robert & Cynthia Double in their battle with the Indiana Department of Family & Social Services – now called the Indiana Department of Child Services. The Doubles were foster parents who had adopted several children. A DCS investigator had substantiated child neglect against the Doubles based upon fabricated evidence. The investigator eventually admitted that the evidence was fabricated and we were able to settle the case with DCS. The abuses within the system that we were able to prove led to an overhaul of DCS by then Governor Mitch Daniels and his administration.

4. In approximately 2004 I represented a single mother who had embezzled $9,500 six months earlier from her former employer. She was worried that she would be charged with a crime and arrested in front of her two small children. She could not sleep at night for fear of being arrested. Two other criminal defense attorneys told her she would likely not be charged with a crime. I coordinated with the Monroe County Prosecutor her re-payment of the embezzled funds, with interest, in exchange for a release and agreement not to prosecute. This was a significant legal matter because a young mother was wracked with guilt and anxiety and she allowed me to help her pay restitution and re-gain her peace of mind.

5. At 2:00 am on February 8, 2005, Benjamin Steinberg pointed a laser-sighted assault rifle out the window of his vehicle as he travelled southbound on SR 37 in Monroe County. He fired once at an adjacent pick-up truck and missed. The second shot struck Monroe County Deputy Sheriff Bill Brand behind the left ear and killed him instantly. Deputy Brand left behind his wife, Stacy, and his four year-old son, Jake.

When I became involved in this case in late 2006, no criminal charges had been filed by the State of Indiana against the killer, Benjamin Steinberg. I immediately called public attention to the case and criminal charges were filed. A jury convicted Mr. Steinberg of murder in October of 2009. We were able to make a small recovery for the widow and her son under the Indiana Worker's Compensation Act and obtained a $3 million civil judgment against the murderer. With the help of Monroe County Sheriff Brad Swain we also succeeded in convincing the Indiana Police Officers' and Firefighters' Pension and Disability Fund to pay a "Line of Duty" death benefit to Mrs. Brand and her son. The Brands' application for similar federal death benefits is still pending.

I consider this case to be one of my most significant because my staff and I were able to help a widow and her son receive justice in the form of a criminal conviction and some monetary compensation for their loss.

7. Efforts to Improve the Legal System, Administration of Justice, or Society

- A. Describe your efforts, achievements, or contributions (including written work, speeches, or presentations) toward the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice. Include a description of any management or leadership roles you undertook to achieve these goals, and describe any specific instances in which your collaborative efforts helped achieve these goals.

From 2007 to 2011 I served as the chairman of the Indiana Trial Lawyers Association Worker's Compensation Committee – an ad hoc group formed to improve the administration of the Indiana Worker's Compensation Act. Partially in response to our efforts, the Indiana Worker's Compensation Board made major revisions to its forms and procedures, making the claim process more reliable and more compliant with specific provisions of the Indiana Worker's Compensation Act.

As described in Section 6B, I helped to change the Indiana Child Wrongful Death Act to cover viable, unborn children.

- B. Describe your efforts, achievements, or contributions (including written work, speeches, or presentations) concerning civic, political, or social issues. Include a description of any management or leadership roles you undertook in this area, and describe any specific instances in which your collaborative efforts in this area led to a successful result.

In 1999 I originated and served as the Chairman of the Bloomington Fire Safety Commission in response to a fatal apartment complex fire where the local fire department's equipment failed. The Commission performed an extensive investigation and issued a report with recommendations. Bloomington Mayor John Fernandez adopted most of these recommendations in his five-year fire department improvement plan.

I served as Chairman of the Monroe County Republican Party in 2004 and 2005. During this time I made numerous speeches to the public and to party members, I organized the local party during a gubernatorial election, and I helped our candidates in their election efforts. The party received an award from the State GOP as one of the top performing counties in the state.

In 2005 I advocated for re-districting of the Monroe County Council and Commissioner Districts in my role as the Monroe County GOP Chairman.

- C. Describe your efforts, achievements, or contributions (including written work, speeches, or presentations) to improve your local, state, or national community through charitable work or public service. Include a description of any management or leadership roles you undertook in this area, and describe any specific instances in which your collaborative efforts in this area led to a successful result.

From 1991 to 2000 I served as a board member of the Crisis Pregnancy Center of Bloomington, Inc. From 1997 to 2000 I held the office of board president. I led the strategic planning and development committee for the Hannah House Maternity Home.

Hannah House provides free housing, counseling, birth and child care services to pregnant women and their newborn children.

In 1993 I founded the Christian Service Association along with four other Bloomington residents and continued to serve as a board member until 1996. During my tenure, CSA published Ekklesia, a monthly Christian newspaper focusing on local issues. CSA also organized an annual concert called YouthFest to promote sexual abstinence among teenagers.

From 1998 to 2000 I served as a board member of Kid's Chance of Indiana, Inc. – a nonprofit organization that provides educational support for children of employees killed on the job.

In 1999 I joined the board of directors of Teen Life Productions, Inc. – a non-profit organization in Bloomington that promoted drug and alcohol abuse prevention among teenagers through multi-media presentations. The organization is now known as Realife Media, Inc. I served as president of the organization from 2002 to 2010. I left the board at the end of 2014. Realife Media owns and operates The Warehouse – a 200,000 square foot Christian community center in Bloomington.

In 2000 I ran as the Republican candidate for the office of Indiana State Representative, District 60.

In 2012 I returned to the board of directors of the Crisis Pregnancy Center of Bloomington and have served as the board president since January of 2015. We recently changed the name of the organization to Hannah Center, Inc. which is celebrating its 30th anniversary this year. Hannah Center's annual budget of $350,000 is completely funded through private contributions. In 2015 I organized the strategic planning process which led to the name change and the decision to provide ultrasound and STI services for young women.

D. Describe the nature and extent of any pro bono legal services you have contributed.

From 1990 through present I have provided countless hours of pro bono services to non-profit organizations throughout Central and Southern Indiana. I prepared articles of incorporation, by-laws, tax exempt applications and provided general legal counsel for numerous charitable organizations including:

In my daily law practice I often reduce my attorney fees to benefit my clients when circumstances suggest that a fee reduction is appropriate. For example, when I represent a minor child in a personal injury claim, it is my standard practice to reduce my contingent fee for 33.3% to 25%. Where appropriate, I have reduced my contingent fee for children to 15 or 10%.
